

A Trusted Shipping Partner for Your Non-Profit

Our Expertise is Now Yours

When you think about shipping your products, are you:

- Confused about where to start?
- Unsure that you can find a trustworthy partner?
- Afraid that your charity's budget is too small?

What if things were different?

What if it were possible to find a supply chain partner who had successfully worked with other non-profits before?

What if they also shared your desire for social impact?

We specialize in helping non-profits because we believe your work matters.

We can take the burden of supply chain and logistics off your plate, and find the best solutions for your life-changing project. You deserve a partner that not only delivers your goods, but delivers on their promises.

Listen to how we collaborated with Books For Africa to ship 50 million books!

Learn more about how we can support your mission:

sales@vectorgl.com
www.vectorgl.com

